Americans for Prosperity Nevada invites you to take part in a

Higher Education Conversation

Tuesday, March 22, 2011
5:00 p.m.
UNLV's Student Union

Americans for Prosperity (AFP) Nevada is sponsoring a discussion on the Nevada System of Higher Education and how we can begin to compete with the nation's top universities. The goal is to present the Legislature with 10 recommendations on how to best address higher education.

The conversation will be conducted town-hall style:

1) Preset questions
2) Open dialogue amongst panel members
3) Q&A session with the audience.

Join the conversation on March 22nd and be part of the solution!
